

GGP PRODIGIES INTERNSHIPS

ggp prodigies

GGP Prodigies is an internship program that gives college students hands-on experience in the shopping center business world. Students who wish to complete internships before graduation may apply in the areas of:

- Accounting
- Business Law
- Business Management
- Construction & Development
- Finance
- Information Systems
- Leasing & Sales
- Market Research
- Marketing & Public Relations
- Operations
- Promotions & Event Planning

the benefits

GGP internships give students the opportunity to:

- Receive college credit outside the classroom
- Acquire career-related skills from top professionals
- Enhance their education through The Learning Mall™, GGP's university-style training environment
- Network with others and make important corporate contacts
- Build an impressive resumé and portfolio
- Become candidates in GGP's employment database

Convenience is a key advantage to GGP Prodigies. Internships are available throughout the year at GGP malls, regional office locations and the corporate office.

how to apply

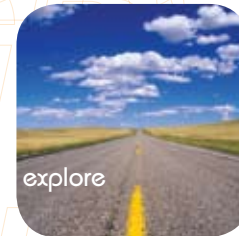

To be eligible for an internship, a student must be currently enrolled in a college, university or trade school and have a 2.5 GPA or higher.

To apply for an internship, fill out an application online at www.ggpprodigies.com or contact the internship coordinator at the malls or offices where you are interested in interning.

Students must submit resúmes and interview with internship coordinators prior to being considered for internship positions.
